The Rhyolite Sound is a Las Vegas-based band playing country music the way it was meant to be played - raucous, rowdy and centered around their own desert honky tonk style.

What people are saying about The Rhyolite Sound and their debut album:

- “The Rhyolite Sound are a tremendous band that is only matched by the character of its members. Their desert honky tonk sound is a welcomed addition to the Las Vegas music scene and one fans need to see live. Their festival set was great and I wish them only the best in the future.” ~ Craig Asher Nyman / Head of Music & Live Performances, Life Is Beautiful
- “The only Las Vegas band to consistently fill the Bunkhouse Saloon with great music and great people who like to drink a lot of beer.” ~ Ryan Pardey / Entertainment Director, Bunkhouse Saloon
- “It’s a damn good country album capable of resonating with those who don’t think they give a damn about country music.” ~ Las Vegas Review-Journal
- Man, I loved these guys. Even fuckin’ cooler there’s kickass country coming out of Vegas! Very solid honky tonk band.” ~ Alex Williams / Country Music Artist, Big Machine Records

The Rhyolite Sound has played with:

Shooter Jennings, Whitey Morgan and the 78’s, Alex Williams, Big Sandy and His Fly-Rite Boys, The Delta Bombers, The Yawpers, Wanda Jackson, and The Supersuckers, among others.
